

Dr Miljana D. Jovanovic

- In 2025, she defended her doctoral thesis at the Faculty of Mathematics, University of Belgrade, titled: "Variation of V and R magnitudes for selected quasars and the link between the Gaia CRF and ICRF systems".
- She is employed as a research associate at the Astronomical Observatory in Belgrade.
- Research areas: astrometry, fundamental astronomy, multi-waveband International Celestial Reference Frame, active galactic nuclei, photometry, ...

